Docket No. R2006-1

OFFICE OF CONSUMER ADVOCATE MOTION
FOR LEAVE TO FILE FOLLOW-UP INTERROGATORY
(OCA/USPS-95) ONE DAY LATE
July 27, 2006

The Postal Service provided a response to an Office of the Consumer Advocate (OCA) interrogatory, i.e., OCA/USPS-10, on July 19, 2006. Under Commission Rule 26(a), OCA's interrogatory OCA/USPS-95, which follows up on the response to number 10, should have been filed yesterday. Owing to the high level of activity in a large number of cases currently being litigated before the Commission, undersigned counsel was not able to submit follow-up interrogatory number 95 during the prescribed time period. Since the interrogatory does not call for a detailed search for, nor compilation of, data, it is the view of OCA that crafting an answer to the interrogatory should not lead to a large expenditure of time or resources. The fact that the answering period shifts one day forward should not produce adverse effects for any party. Therefore, OCA respectfully requests that the Presiding Officer direct the Postal Service to respond to OCA's interrogatory.

Respectfully submitted,

SHELLEY S. DREIFUSS, Director
Office of the Consumer Advocate
