

BEFORE THE
POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20268-0001

STAMPED STATIONERY CLASSIFICATION

DOCKET NO. MC2006-7

INTERROGATORIES OF DAVID B. POPKIN TO THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE [DBP/USPS-9 through 17]

David B. Popkin hereby requests the United States Postal Service to answer, fully and completely, the following interrogatories pursuant to Rules 25 and 26 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. To the extent that a reference is made in the response to a Library Reference, I would appreciate receiving a copy of the reference since I am located at a distance from Washington, DC. Any reference to testimony or other sources should indicate the page and line numbers. The instructions contained in the interrogatories DFC/USPS-T1-1-6 in Docket MC2006-7 dated February 23, 2007, are incorporated herein by reference. In accordance with the provisions of Rule 25[b], I am available for informal discussion to respond to your request to "clarify questions and to identify portions of discovery requests considered overbroad or burdensome."

February 26, 2007

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID B. POPKIN, POST OFFICE BOX 528, ENGLEWOOD, NJ 07631-0528

DBP/USPS-9                      Please describe the target market for the sale of the Premium Stamped Stationery. If it is different for the two versions that have been issued, please respond individually.

DBP/USPS-10                    Please describe the target market for the sale of the Premium Stamped Cards. If there are different responses for different cards, please respond to each category of cards and indicate which cards are in each category.

DBP/USPS-11                    What percentage of each of the two versions of the Premium Stamped Stationery that have been sold to date does the Postal Service believe were mailed for other than philatelic purposes?

DBP/USPS-12                    What percentage of the various versions of the Premium Stamped Cards that have been sold to date does the Postal Service believe were mailed for other than philatelic purposes?

DBP/USPS-13                    Please advise why large oversize Premium Stamped Cards were recently issued [as opposed to the normal size cards]?

DBP/USPS-14                    Please confirm, or explain if you are unable to confirm, that the selling price for these oversize cards would fall under the proposed rate for Premium Stamped Cards.

DBP/USPS-15                    Please discuss the extent to which the various Premium Stamped Stationery and Premium Stamps Cards have been designed to take into account the concept of being well designed from a mail processing standpoint.

DBP/USPS-16                    Please discuss the ease by which a recipient of each of the two versions of the Premium Stamped Stationery will be able to readily open and read the mailpiece if it has been fully sealed by the mailer.

DBP/USPS-17                    [a]     Has the Postal Service declared a moratorium on the issuance of any new versions of the Premium Stamped Stationery and/or Premium Stamped Cards until this Docket has been resolved?

[b]     If not, why not?
