INTRODUCTION

The Postal Regulatory Commission's Office of Secretary and Administration (OSA) has an exciting employment opportunity for a highly motivated person with skills and interest providing strategic technical leadership in support of the Chief Data Officer (CDO) and the Commission's enterprise data initiatives. This position has a probationary period of 1 year with the potential for promotion to a PRC-7.

LEARN MORE ABOUT THIS AGENCY

The Postal Regulatory Commission is an independent establishment of the executive branch created by the Postal Accountability and Enhancement Act (PAEA) to provide strengthened oversight of the United States Postal Service. The five-member bipartisan Commission promotes high quality universal mail service for the American people by ensuring Postal Service transparency, accountability, and compliance with the law. The Commission is the primary regulator of the United States Postal Service and works to provide appropriate insight into postal rates, finances, and service to stakeholders and the general public.

Further information about the Commission and the Office of Secretary and Administration is available at www.prc.gov/about.

WORK ENVIRONMENT

This position is in the Office of the Secretary and Administration (OSA) which handles all Commission operations, including Administrative Services, Information Technology, Finance (Budget, Accounting, Procurement), Human Resources, Data Management, Strategic Planning, Facilities, Health and Safety, Records Management, Privacy, and more. As a result of these expansive responsibilities and small number of staff, OSA team members tend to possess entrepreneurial spirits, wear multiple hats, and engage in high levels of cooperation to ensure the Commission operates effectively and efficiently. This position is eligible for routine telework. This position requires a minimum of 3 days (a week) to be physically present at the Commission facilities to assist users.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The incumbent serves as a senior data engineer, providing strategic technical leadership in support of the Chief Data Officer (CDO) and the Commission's enterprise data initiatives. The incumbent is responsible for designing, developing, and maintaining modern data infrastructure within Azure, including centralized storage environments, automated data pipelines, and robust metadata management systems.

This position serves as the CDO's delegated lead during periods of absence or unavailability and is responsible for representing the CDO in executive briefings, stakeholder meetings, and technical decision-making sessions. The incumbent collaborates with cross-functional teams, interprets policy direction, resolves escalated issues, and ensures continuity of operations across data governance, analytics, and cloud modernization efforts.

Key Duties include:

- Translating enterprise data vision into actionable engineering solutions that prioritize automation, scalability, and accessibility.
- Overseeing technical implementation of secure, reliable data pipelines, migrating manual scripting processes to orchestrated Azure-based services.
- Supporting the development of a comprehensive enterprise data catalog and metadata strategy.
- Briefing senior leadership on technical progress and strategic alignment of data initiatives.
- Collaborating with stakeholders across functional domains to assess needs and deliver solutions that meet business and regulatory requirements.
- Evaluating and enhancing data architecture for performance, maintainability, and integration with Purview, Synapse, and other Azure tools.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Demonstrated experience leading enterprise-scale data modernization efforts, including the migration from manual data processing workflows (e.g., Python scripts) to cloud-based automation frameworks.
- Expert-level knowledge of Azure data services (including but not limited to Azure Data Factory, Azure Synapse Analytics, Azure Data Lake, and Microsoft Purview).
- Proven ability to brief executives, translate technical concepts into strategic recommendations, and maintain credibility in high-stakes stakeholder environments.
- Experience with data governance, metadata management, and the development of centralized data repositories.
- Ability to provide leadership coverage during CDO absences, including issue resolution and decision-making responsibilities.

CRITICAL COMPETENCIES

Critical Competencies include:

- Works under the supervision of the Commission's Chief Data Officer, who establishes the incumbent's area of responsibility and provides administrative and policy direction in terms of broadly defined functions.
- Independently plans and carries out assignments, determines and implements technical approaches, and coordinates the work of others as needed.

- Exercises broad discretion in decision-making, stakeholder communication, and execution of enterprise data strategy.
- Reviews work for alignment with strategic objectives, technical feasibility, and effectiveness in meeting program outcomes.

EDUCATION

Bachelor's degree or higher degree in Information Technology, Computer Science, or a related field; or equivalent combination of education and experience. Specialized experience performing data services work which demonstrates an expert-level knowledge of Azure data services.

HOW YOU WILL BE EVALUATED

You will be evaluated by a screening panel based on evidence of your ability to successfully perform the duties of the position according to the qualifications outlined in this announcement. The panel will forward the appropriate candidates to the Chief Data Officer for further consideration and possible interview.

ETHICS REQUIREMENTS

The Commission is committed to government ethics. As a Commission employee, you will be subject to the Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch and the criminal conflict of interest statutes. Commission employees are also subject to Commission-specific ethics rules (39 C.F.R. subpart A of part 3001 and supplemental standards of ethical conduct [5 C.F.R. part 5601]). The supplemental standards prohibit Commission employees, as well as their spouses and dependent children, from owning any securities issued by entities that are identified on the Commission's annually published prohibited securities list. As an employee of the Commission, you must complete initial ethics training within three months of your appointment and, depending on your position, complete required financial disclosure forms within 30 days of your appointment.
