USPS Requests Advisory Opinion on Certain Aspects of its Delivering for America Plan

Washington, DC – Today, the U.S. Postal Service formally requested an Advisory Opinion (N-2024-1) on specific aspects of the Delivering for America Plan. The Commission will review the request, ask for public comments, offer to hold a hearing, and ultimately issue findings and recommendations about the Plan. In the coming days, the Commission will file a Notice and Order which describes the Postal Service’s request and a procedural schedule. Interested parties can check back at PRC.gov for additional information on the Advisory Opinion process, timing and directions for how to participate.

By law, the Commission’s final opinion is advisory. The Postal Service is not required to implement or take any further action concerning the Commission’s opinion.

*The Postal Regulatory Commission is an independent federal agency that provides regulatory oversight over the Postal Service to ensure the transparency and accountability of the Postal Service and foster a vital and efficient universal mail system. The Commission is comprised of five presidentially appointed and Senate-confirmed Commissioners, each serving terms of six years. The President designates the Chairman. In addition to Chairman Michael Kubayanda, the other commissioners are Vice Chairman Tom Day and Commissioners Ann Fisher, Ashley Poling, and Robert Taub.
